conflicting position without first notifying the Office and discussing the matter with a representative of that Office. Willful or repeated violation of the requirements of this paragraph may be subject to disciplinary action.

Article III. Unprofessional Conduct

1. General rule. Any student who engages in unprofessional conduct with regard to any matter, whether or not related to BUSL or to Boston University, may be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to these Regulations.

2. Definition. Unprofessional conduct includes:

- a. illegal conduct involving moral turpitude;
- b. conduct that involves dishonesty, fraud, or deceit; or
- c. conduct that violates the standards of professional ethics established for lawyers or otherwise adversely reflects on the fitness of the student for admission to the bar.

3. Specific examples. Subject to the standard defined in section 2 above, the following are examples of conduct that may be determined to be unprofessional conduct subject to disciplinary action pursuant to these Regulations:

- a. Failure to comply with University rules relating to student conduct and discipline. Students are required to comply with the rules established by Boston University relating to student conduct and discipline. For example, students are expected to comply with the University Policy on Sexual Harassment. Willful or repeated failure to comply with such rules may be determined to be unprofessional conduct subject to disciplinary action pursuant to these Regulations whether or not such conduct is also subject to disciplinary action pursuant to University rules.
- b. Violations of public law. Conduct in violation of public law may be determined to be unprofessional conduct subject to disciplinary action pursuant to these Regulations whether or not such conduct is also subject to criminal or other sanctions.
- c. False statement. Making a false statement in any document or record related to the study or practice of law may be the basis for disciplinary action, whether the statement is made on a document submitted to BUSL, Boston University, or to a third party. Included within this category would be any false statement on an application for admission to BUSL or other academic institution, on an application or other document submitted for financial aid, or on a resume submitted to a potential employer or agent for a potential employer.
- d. Other conduct. Conduct defined as unprofessional conduct under section 2, above, may be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to these Regulations whether or not such conduct is related to the academic process at Boston University, and whether or not such conduct is also subject to other sanctions. These examples of unprofessional conduct are not intended to be exhaustive.

Article IV. Investigation and Presentation of Charges

1. Investigation of reported student misconduct. All reports and all complaints of student misconduct, including reports and complaints involving LL.M. students, shall be referred to the Office of the Dean, which shall promptly conduct an investigation of the matter. At the direction of the Dean, an Associate Dean or other delegate of the Dean shall discuss the matter with the student at the earliest opportunity, and in the case of students in an LL.M. program, consult with the
